Shrewsbury.

Venice, January 2. N. S. They write from Rome, that the Pope has declared he will receive no more Proposals on the part of the Duke of Savoy, in relation to the Disputes that are between the two Courts of Rome and Turin: Whereupon Monsieur de Gubernalis has forborn to make any farther Applications to his Holiness, and is preparing to publish some Papers in Defence of his Royal Highness, against the Proceedings of the Court of Rome. These Letters add, that the Princess Carbogniano was arrived there, and had brought with her the young Marchioness of Caravagio, who is said to be exceeding rich; and Dona Bernardina, the Pope's Sister having been to visit her upon her Arrival, it is thought his Holiness has some Intentions of Marrying her to Don Charles Albani, one of his Nephews, tho' the Lady is not above thirteen Years of Age. The Cardinal de la Tremouille has receiv'd Orders to assist at the Process appointed to examine into, and prove the Nobility of Count Albergotti, on whom the French King has conferr'd the Order of the Holy Ghost. They write from Milan, that Te Deum had been Sung there on Account of the late Victory obtain'd by General Staremberg over the Duke of Anjou's Forces in Spain. All the Cannon belonging to the Town were fired thrice on this Occasion. Our Letters from Naples of the 23d of the last Month advise, that on the 14th an Earthquake had been felt at Tarento, and in the Provinces of Barri and Basilicata, but without doing any considerable Damage; and that four of their Gallies having attack'd a Tartan belonging to Messina, the Commander made a very obstinate Defence for some time; but finding it otherwise impossible to prevent her falling into the Enemy's Hands, he set Fire to the Powder in the Gun-room, and blew her up.

Hanover, January 9. N. S. Though it was thought his Electoral Highness wou'd have order'd the Carnival to be suspended for this Year, by reason of the Plague, it was nevertheless open'd the 4th Instant in the usual manner. They write from Saxony, that the Councellors Pfingsteim and Imhoff had been Try'd and Condemn'd, for having concluded the Treaty of Alt-Ranstadt with the Ministers of Sweden, upon Terms very disadvantageous to their Master, the King of Poland; and that the first of those Gentlemen was to be Beheaded by virtue of the Sentence given against him; but that Monsieur Imhoff's Friends had interceeded with his Majesty in his behalf, and got his Punishment chang'd into a perpetual Imprisonment. This Court has just now receiv'd from the Duke of Wolfenbuttel the Copy of a Letter written from Milan, and containing the Relation of an Action which happen'd in Spain the 10th of December last, in which the Duke of Anjou's Forces were totally routed by those of the Allies under the Command of General Staremberg.

Brussels, January 17. N. S. Our Letters of the 12th Instant from Germany have brought hither the agreeable News, that the Action which past the 10th of December in Spain, was entirely to the Advantage of the Allies, notwithstanding the Confident Reports of the French to the contrary, and their affected Demonstrations of Joy on that Occasion. This News has been confirm'd to us by a Courier from Dusseldorp, and the Marquis de los Rios, a Major-General in his Catholick Majesty's Service, was expected yesterday at Antwerp, in his way to England, whither he is sent by the King of Spain, with an Account of that Victory. The Cannon of this Town were fired yesterday, and the like will be done in all the other Towns in these Provinces that have been reduc'd to his Catholick Majesty's Obedience. Orders are also given for the Singing of Te Deum, and for such other Publick Demonstrations of Joy as are usual on the like Occasions. Letters from Paris of the 12th Instant say, General Staremberg marched with his Army through Saragossa on the 31st of the last Month towards Catalonia; and that the Enemy's Troops decamp'd on the 23d from Siguença, directing their March by Daroca towards the Ebro.

Hague, January 16. N. S. We expect every moment the Arrival of a General Officer in the King of Spain's Service, sent by his Catholick Majesty to the Queen of Great Britain and the States-General, with an Account of the late Action near Brihuega, and the present Situation of Affairs in Spain. Our Letters from France say, the
